bodied wine.

Analysis: pH: 3.57 Acid: 6.2g/L Alc: 14.0%

Winemaker: Greg Chinery (Consultant)

Awards: Bronze, Geographe Wine Show 2004

Wine Review: A powerful and robust shiraz with a liberal amount of French oak and ripe firm tannins. The meaty aromas have a touch of savoury pepper and a little spiciness. The palate is deep and rich with a solid chunky feel. Ripe and chewy, this is a wine that will hit its straps in a couple of years.

Oak Contact: 100% maturation in new and old French oak for 10 months
